

JOHN STANGER (fl. 1867-1878)

The Governor and Committee at their meeting of 12 February 1867 appointed John Stanger of Stromness their agent in succession to Edward Clouston. (A.1/78, p. 144) The Secretary wrote to him on 13 February informing him of the appointment, which was to take effect as of 1 March 1867. (A.5/32, p. 145) Stanger wrote on 16 February accepting the appointment (A.10/69, fo. 341). [Clouston's letter of the same date is fo. 335.] On 5 March the Secretary sent Stanger a long letter outlining his duties as Agent. (A.5/32, pp.163-165).

The last letter apparently written to Stanger was on 4 December 1878. (A.5/43, fo. 560) Stanger died at Stromness on 20 December 1878. (A.64/38, fo. 23d.)

Series A.5 contain letter book copies of letters to Stanger from London; letters from him to London are in Series A.10.
